Constitution of
St. Peter’s United Church of Christ of Carmel, Inc.
Carmel, Indiana

ARTICLE I - Name
The name of this Church will be “St. Peter's United Church of Christ of Carmel, Indiana.”

ARTICLE II - Tradition
St. Peter’s United Church of Christ acknowledges as its sole Head, Jesus Christ, Son of God and Savior. It acknowledges as kindred in Christ all who share in this confession. It looks to the Word of God in the Scriptures and to the presence and power of the Holy Spirit to guide its creative and redemptive work in the world. It claims as its own the faith of the historic Church expressed in the ancient creeds, such as the Apostles’ Creed and the Nicene Creed, and reclaimed in the basic insights of the Protestant Reformers. It affirms the responsibility of the Church in each generation to make this faith its own in reality of worship, in honesty of thought and expression, and in purity of heart before God. In accordance with the teaching of our Lord and the practice prevailing among Christians, it recognizes two sacraments: Baptism and the Lord’s Supper or Holy Communion.

ARTICLE III - Purpose
St. Peter’s United Church of Christ’s purpose is to carry the word of God and teachings of Jesus Christ to the greater community through creative ministries. We will provide a place for individuals to organize and worship God. We will provide ministries for individuals to grow as Christians. We will develop lay leaders to create, design, and deliver new exciting ministries. We will provide ministries to help others and share God’s love. We will continuously look to improve our programs and offerings to those we serve.

ARTICLE IV - Covenant of Welcome
“Welcome!” to everyone who has faith or who seeks it, who lives in hope or who needs it.

“Welcome!” to all who rejoice and are strong, or who mourn and are weary.

“Welcome!” to those who know Christ, and to those who long for an introduction.

We believe God’s grace is extended to all. To anyone who has felt unwelcome or has experienced rejection elsewhere, we say, “All are welcome here!”

We acknowledge our diversities ... and we welcome, respect and support people of every race, ethnicity, economic status, sexual orientation, age, gender, marital status and physical as well as mental ability. We are a community where all are equal, all are loved, and all are respected for who and what they are — and for what they can become.
We acknowledge that our fears and ignorance sometimes hinder us. We challenge one another to follow the teachings of Jesus, who denied no one and welcomed all: We strive to live our faith by supporting inclusiveness and justice for all humanity, and we invite all who gather here to participate in our ministries of service, word and sacrament.
